ORDER GRANTING MOTION FOR WITHDRAWAL OF COUNSEL FOR DEFENDANT

Kathleen Henderson of the firm of King & Ballow, counsel for the Defendant, has filed a motion for withdrawal of counsel pursuant to her activation for military duty. Mark Stamelos, also with the firm of King & Ballow and counsel for the Defendant, has filed a notice of appearance in this matter.

For good cause shown, the motion for withdrawal of Ms. Henderson as counsel is hereby GRANTED and Mr. Stamelos is hereby substituted as counsel of record for the Defendant.

It is noted that in the motion for withdrawal, counsel has stated that Defendant may seek modification of the scheduling deadlines set in this matter. The scheduling deadlines as set forth in This Court's Rule 16(b) Joint Scheduling Order, filed on March 30, 2005, remain in effect and the parties are to adhere to such deadlines to the extent possible. If it appears that modification of the deadlines becomes necessary, Defendant will consult with the Plaintiff in attempt to reach mutually agreeable scheduling deadlines and file a motion with This Court seeking such modification. The parties are to attempt to reach mutually agreeable dates for scheduling where possible.

Wherefore, the motion for withdrawal is hereby GRANTED. The Clerk of Court is hereby ORDERED to remove Kathleen Henderson from the service list and substitute Mark Stamelos as counsel of record for the Defendant. IT IS SO ORDERED.
